B. H. BRISTOW,

SUBJECT TO THE DECISION OF THE

REPUBLICAN NATIONAL CONVENTION

THE OPPOSITION LINE.

The new opposition to the Pacific Mail Steamship Company is in full operation. The pioneer vessel of the new company has sailed from New York for Aspinwall, there to connect by the Panama railroad with a steamer from San Francisco. The agents of the new company state that steamers will run regularly hereafter. They will also place other steamers on various routes now running to Mexican and Central American ports. We think that the people will derive great benefit from this opposition line. They will be enabled to make the trip from ocean to ocean at one-half the present rates, and thus many who have thought that the exorbitant rates charged by the railroad company would compel them to defer a trip East, especially during this Centennial year, have now the assurance that no necessity exists for its postponement. As an effect of the establishment of this new steamship line we believe that the railroad company will within the next sixty days announce a reduction of rates, or issue special tickets at excursion rates to Pacific coast people desirous of going on to the Centennial.

THE INDIAN AND THE ARMY.—The

New York Herald says: "If the three bills regulating the pay of the army, reducing the force and transferring the Indian Service to the army, become laws, a saving of nearly seven million dollars will be effected in army estimates, besides over one-million in appropriations for the Interior Department. There will be a strong opposition in both Houses to these bills, but particularly to the transfer of Indians, because in this matter Senators must sacrifice patronage and politicians and lobbyists must lose one of the greatest sources of corruption, extravagance and favoritism. In one item alone, that of transportation of Indian supplies in 1848, the appropriations for Indian affairs were $843,000. Now, while they are vastly decreased, over seven millions are required."

WHAT IT MEANS.

The San Francisco Post, the only metropolitan journal sound on the railroad questions, explains just what the Huntington proposition means, and shows that the Government is asked to take all the bad securities of the road and pay the good ones. The Post says:

The United States, having given the company $32,000 a mile in bonds for 620 miles through a partial desert and 12,800 acres of land to the mile also, is now to take back the unavailable ground, and in consideration of that valuable privilege is to pay the bonded subsidy outright. One feature of the public bounty is played against another feature of it, and the Government settles both and assumes the accrued liability besides. There is a facial spirit of cool impudence in the title of the bill, which declares that it is designed to create a sinking fund for the liquidation of Government bonds advanced to the Central and Western Companies. In the present temper of Congress no such scheme can succeed. There is too much good land and valuable property in possession of the corporation to justify the nation in accepting sage brush and alkali in liquidation. In presenting this bill the Central Pacific Company has acknowledged the justice and absolute necessity of making its land grants and property the basis of a sinking fund to protect its creditors. Congress should be quick to act upon the idea, taking care, however, to take the good land in California along with the bad in Nevada and Utah, which would recognize the principle involved, preserve the honor of the nation and defeat the cunning of the corporation.

We thought there was a "little joker" in the bill. After having assigned over all their good lands to the Contract and Finance Company, the railroad company proper, is willing to relinquish the worthless tracts at $2 50 per acre, and receive credit for that amount on what they owe the Government. As an exhibition of pure, unadulterated cheek, the proposition stands pre-eminent.

Personal.

Edwin Booth netted $52,000 by his Southern tour.

Moody and Sankey's services will cost New York about $40,000.

Lord Lytton gets $200,000 a year as Governor General of India.

ANOTHER BONANZA.

A Monster Bed of Bullion—Peck's Divining Rod and the Washoe Seeress.

The Gold Hill News says that Mr. A. I. Peck, the celebrated mining expert with the divining rod, who now has a suit pending in the San Francisco courts for pointing out the location of the east ore body in the Ophir mine to some of the owners, a few days since visited the North Consolidated Virginia mine, situated some sixteen hundred feet north of the Mexican, and made a careful examination of the ground. Mr. Peck says that commencing a little to the south and east of the North Consolidated Virginia shaft and lengthening out to the northward, there is a body of ore equal in richness and extent to the great Consolidated Virginia bonanza. He says the ore is over 350 feet in width, and that the shaft will cut it by the time it has reached a depth of 1,300 feet. The North Consolidated folks need no longer work in doubt, as this must, of course, settle all fears in regard to the future ore developments of the mine. This prophesied ore body is on a direct line with the east body of ore located by the Washoe Seeress, Mrs. Bowers, in the Wells-Fargo and other mines, a little to the northward. It is probably on the tail end of it.

HOW BOUTWELL WAS ELECTED UNITED STATES SENATOR.—A Washington special to the New York Sun says that a claim, well authenticated, has been presented by Ely, of New York, on behalf of Abraham Harris and referred to the Committee on Expenditures of the Treasury Department. It sets forth that Boutwell paid Butler $25,000 as attorney of Jayne, the revenue reformer. The evidence further shows that Boutwell paid this sum knowing that Butler would thereby use his influence to get Boutwell elected Senator, with the assurance also that Richardson would be appointed Boutwell's successor as Secretary of the Treasury. In plain language—Boutwell allowed Butler to intercept $25,000 belonging to Willis, knowing that Butler would exert himself to elect Boutwell to the Senate in place of Wilson, who was elected Vice President.

An assessment of $1 per share has been levied by the Crown Point Mining Company.

Burglars are bothering Dayton.

THE JUBILEE SINGERS.—The Reno Opera House was crowded last night to see the Jubilee Singers. The concert last night was almost a repetition of the former one given here. But for all that it gave the utmost satisfaction. The troupe go to the Comstock next.

FOR ARIZONA.—Those who wish to go to the new and rich mining regions of Arizona, will find an advertisement in another column giving the price of fares and all other particulars.

OBSTRUCTIONS REMOVED.—The brow of rock on the V. & T. this side of Washoe have long been the cause of trouble. Yesterday workmen were engaged in blasting out the largest of the boulders.

HOOLE has returned from his Bay trip. He is glad of it, for he narrowly escaped being shanghaied.

ANTI-CHINESE.—Read the San Francisco papers of this morning for an account of the great anti-Chinese mass meeting held before last.

THE ODD FELLOWS.

Their Coming Anniversary—How They Propose to Observe It—Grand Procession, Orations, Other Literary Exercises During the Day—Grand Ball in the Evening.

The Odd Fellows of Reno have completed all necessary arrangements for a proper celebration of the fifty-seventh anniversary of the introduction of American Odd Fellowship. The programme, as published in another portion of this paper, is for a grand procession, orations and other literary exercises of a highly entertaining character during the day, and a grand ball at Dyer's Hall in the evening. The procession will form at Odd Fellows Hall at 1 P.M., and march through the principal streets to Dyer's Hall, where the exercises of the day will take place.

These will consist of orations by W. M. Boardman, Esq., and Rev. C. L. Fisher; a poem by R. F. Hoy, Esq.; select reading by Orvis Ring, Esq.; prayer by Rev. Wm. Lucas; music by the Reno brass band, and singing by the Reno Glee Club. The ball in the evening will be a fitting termination to the day's enjoyment. The public are cordially invited to attend at the exercises of the day, and the ball in the evening. The names of the members having the matter in charge is sure indication of the celebration being a complete success.

SAOLON AND EATING-HOUSE.—There is nothing more productive of or suggestive of comfort and luxury than well cooked chops of steaks, rarebits, game or food of any kind, accompanied with a good glass of wine, ale, gin, brandy or liquor, and a peerless fragrant cigar, and there is no place where these comforts can be more thoroughly enjoyed than at Jake Becker's ever favorite house, corner of Commercial Row and Virginia street, where all the epicures resort. Remember the Capital Saloon.

LITTLE RUNAWAYS.—Night before last Constable Barlow received a dispatch from Virginia requesting him to arrest two little runaway boys from Virginia, who were passengers on the down train. He effected the capture, and detained the boys here yesterday, until the arrival of the father of one of them. The boys gave their names as Hanly and O'Leary.

Mrs. JULIA PRESCOTT, our fashionable milliner, has returned, and if the ladies wish a rare treat they should go and see her window, where they will find the finest, choicest and most select stock in that line which has ever been displayed in this town or anywhere on the coast.

PACIFIC HOTEL.—Appropriately named is this home-like, quiet hotel, kept by R. Leeper, on Plaza street. Anyone who desires a quite retreat in a strictly temperance house, where they can find good wholesome food cooked by white women, will be fully satisfied at the Pacific.

The condition of the mining share market is not encouraging. Despite the fact that the pay days have come and gone and that dividend days are close at hand, a general shading off in the prices of nearly all stocks is hard to account for. Even the bonanzas give evidence of weakness.

K. OF P.—Amity Lodge, No. 8, will hold its regular weekly meeting this evening. All members in good standing are requested to attend, as business of importance is to be transacted.

It was very unpleasant out of doors yesterday. A disagreeable wind prevailed, and the cold chill air sent a shudder through one not at all welcome.

PATENT.—The notice of application for a patent by the Golden Fleece will be found in our advertising columns. If the subject interests you, read the notice.

ANNUAL MEETING.—Notice is elsewhere given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Carr Tunnel Co. will take place on the 17th inst.

ON TIME.—Passenger and freight trains on both roads are now running on time to all points.

The Reno Library Club has a membership of 187. And still they come.

Six.—Washoe county has six post offices.
